ERIE COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY HOSTS ERIE ECONOMIC EXCHANGE

The Erie County Public Library and Radius Cowork invite local entrepreneurs, business owners, workers, consumers and concerned citizens to the Erie Economic Exchange Talk and Learn on Saturday, February 17, at 11a.m. at the Blasco Library.

Participants will have the opportunity to share perspectives on economics in daily life, gain insightful and educational tips and share opinions about the state of the economy in Erie County. Bill Scholz, start-up professional and cofounder of Radius Cowork, will facilitate the discussion. The talk will begin at 11 a.m. in the Community Classroom.

Interested citizens are asked to prepare a three-minute presentation that imparts their view on the current state of economic affairs. A laptop and projector will be available for attendees utilizing computer presentations.

The discussion will conclude with advisement of best practices for voicing concerns to city and county officials.

Visit www.erielibrary.org/events or call the Idea Lab at 814.451.6939 for additional details.

About Erie Economic Exchange

Erie Economic Exchange is an interactive discussion group held every third Saturday of the month. Each discussion includes a presentation and open dialogue on the economics of the day.

The groups are led by Bill Scholz, an Erie native and entrepreneur who returned home after living in Scotland. He cofounded Radius Cowork to provide more opportunity in Erie's core through innovative place making. Bill is immersed in Erie's entrepreneurial ecosystem and works tirelessly to share resources and information in the community.

Previous topics have included manufacturing in Erie and unions.
